Dear Colleagues

The International Urogynecological Association is having its world meeting here in Cape Town from 2 – 6 August. A number of world famous international experts have confirmed their attendance, and will be presenting. There are opportunities to meet and interact with Linda Cardozo, Mark Slack, Bob Shull, Peter Dwyer, Abdul Sultan, JP Roovers, and Catherine Matthews to name but a few.

Live surgical workshops will pre-date the congress and delegates may watch the world's finest surgeons showcase their skills!

There are programmes for urologists, physio's, continence advisors, and also other specialists. A large industry exhibition is also part of the programme, as is a full social programme. Register and book early from 12 February to take advantage of generous "Early bird" registration discounts.

We look forward to seeing you there! For details visit www.iuga.org

See you in Cape Town in August!!!
